AN ACT CONCERNING THE COUNTY SITE OF MITCHELL COUNTY. Chap. 5.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the magistrates of the county of Mitchell, a majority of them being present, shall select another location for a county site than that now used as such under the name of Calhoun, which shall be called "Davis." Magistrates to select.

Election to be held.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That such site having been selected, it shall be the duty of said magistrates, acting in their capacity as court of pleas and quarter sessions, to order an election to be held at the several precincts of the county at which elections for members of the General Assembly are now held, and shall appoint inspectors of the polls, and it shall be the duty of the sheriff of said county, after giving thirty days' public notice, to cause said election to be held, and at said election all those voting for the county site at Calhoun, shall vote a ballot with the name "Calhoun" written or printed thereon, and those voting for the county site selected by the magistrates as aforesaid, shall vote a similar ballot with the name "Davis" written or printed thereon.

Election.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the said inspectors of polls shall certify the list of votes at their several precincts, as now required by law in the elections of members of Assembly, and shall the next day after said election make a return of the same to the sheriff of said county in the town of Calhoun, who shall, in presence of said inspectors, compare the same, and ascertain the result of said election; upon which the sheriff shall deliver all the said returns to the clerk of the county court of said county, to be filed and kept by him as in cases of other elections, and it shall be the further duty of the sheriff forthwith to certify to the Governor of the State, the number of votes cast in said election for each of the said places; and the result of the said election being so reported and certified to the Governor of the State, it shall be his duty, by proclamation, published in one or more newspapers in the city of Raleigh, to announce the result, and to declare which of the said places has been selected; and such place shall thereafter be, and is hereby declared to be established as the county seat of said county; and thereupon it shall be the duty of the said magistrates to proceed to secure the title to the land in the said place so selected, by having the same conveyed to the chairman of the county court of said county and his successors in office, for the use and benefit of the people of said county; which being done, a majority of the justices of the county court of Mitchell shall appoint commissioners, who shall proceed to lay off said land so selected into lots and streets suitable for a town, reserving however all lots necessary for public buildings, churches, school-houses, &c., and they shall then expose to public sale, under the directions of the county court, a majority of the justices being present, the remaining lots from time to time as deemed proper, having first given thirty days' notice of said sale and terms thereof; and all notes taken in consequence thereof shall be made payable to the chairman of the county court of Mitchell and his successors in office, and the proceeds of said sale shall be applied to the erection of the public buildings and other county purposes; and all deeds for said lots to the purchasers, shall be made in the name of the chairman as aforesaid.

Commissioners

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That if the county seat should be removed from Calhoun to Davis, then the chairman of the county court shall re-convey to the donors all the lands donated to the chairman of the county court for the use of the people of Mitchell county: Provided however, That the chairman of the county court of said county shall not be compelled to re-convey any lot that may have been sold; but shall pay the donor the price for which said lot sold respectively, in current money, or by endorsement and delivery of the bonds given for said lots.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all laws and clauses of laws coming in conflict with the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That all provisions necessary to carry out this act, which are contained in an act to lay off and establish the county of Mitchell, be and the same shall apply to this act.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification. [Ratified the 2d day of December, 1862.]

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the charter of the Pittsboro' and Plankroad Company, passed by the Legislature at the session of 1852-'53, be so amended as to extend to said company further chartered rights, for the term of thirty years, from and after the rise of this Legislature, and further to extend to said company the privilege of constructing a McAdamized road in the place of the plankroad, or relay the same with plank, as the stockholders thereof shall deem most beneficial.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification. [Ratified the 10th day of February, 1863.]

RAILROADS.

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CHARTER OF THE CHATHAM RAILROAD Chap. 26.
COMPANY.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That whenever it shall appear to the Governor of the State, by a certificate under the seal of the Chatham Railroad Company, signed by the treasurer and countersigned by the president, that at least one mile of the road has been graded and prepared for the superstructure, the Governor shall be and he is hereby authorized to subscribe on behalf of the State for stock in said company, to an amount equal to ten thousand dollars per mile for the part so graded, and a like sum shall be subscribed in like manner, whenever any additional number of miles of the road shall have been so graded, until its completion: Provided, That no State subscription shall be made for that portion of the said road beyond Lockville, until the grading shall be completed and ready for the superstructure from the North-Carolina road to Lockville.

Governor authorized to subscribe stock equal to $10,000 per mile.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the number of said directors in said company shall be seven, of whom the board of internal improvements shall appoint a number proportioned to the stock subscribed by the State; the residue to be elected by the other stockholders, as prescribed in the charter of the company, and said directors shall, out of their number, choose the president of the said company.

Number of directors.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That the public treasurer shall pay such subscriptions by the sale of coupon bonds of the State, the principal of which is to be paid at the end of twenty years, and the interest semi-annually on the first Monday in January and July in each and every year; said bonds to be made for the sums of five hundred and one thousand dollars: Provided, That said bonds shall not be sold for less than their par value, and further, that said bonds shall not exceed in the aggregate two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

How the public treasurer is to pay.

Proviso.

Privileges surrendered.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That in consideration of the benefits conferred by this act, the Chatham Railroad Company shall, by accepting the same, be demed to surrender so much of the privileges granted by sections 45, 46 and 49 of an ordinance of the convention, entitled "an ordinance in addition to an amendment of an act of the General Assembly, ratified the 15th day of February, 1861, entitled 'an act to incorporate the Chatham Railroad Company, and to repeal an act supplemental thereto, ratified the 23d February, 1861,'" as are conferred on corporations which may hereafter subscribe to the capital stock of said company.

Sums paid by R. & G. R. R., and the city of Raleigh.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That all sums of money paid by the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, and the city of Raleigh, to the treasurer of the State, in satisfaction of the principal and interest of the bonds of said corporation, deposited with the treasurer as contemplated in the said ordinance of the convention, shall be applied first, to the payment of the interest of the bonds of the State given said corporation in exchange for their own, and the residue shall be paid to the commissioners of the sinking fund, to be used by them at their discretion, for the redemption of said bonds of the State.

Termini.

SEC. 6. Be it further enacted, That the said railroad may be constructed with termini to any point or points in the coalfields region, in the counties of Chatham and Moore, that the stockholders may agree upon, with the approbation of the board of internal improvements.

Right of way.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That when any lands or right of way may be required by said company for the purpose of constructing their road, and for want of agreement as to the value thereof, or from any other cause, the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by five commissioners, or a majority of them, to be appointed by any court of record having common law jurisdiction in the county where some part of the lands or right of way is situate; in making the said valuation, the said commissioners shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may accrue to the owner or owners in consequence of the land or right of way being surrendered, and the benefit or advantage he she or they may receive from the erection or establishment of the railroad or works, and shall state particularly the value and amount of each, and the excess of loss or damage, over and above the advantage and benefit, shall form the measure of the valuation of said land or right of way: Provided, nevertheless, That if any person over whose land the road may pass, or the said company shall be dissatisfied with the valuation of said commissioners, then, and in that case, the person or corporation so dissatisfied, may have an appeal to the superior court of the county where said valuation has been made, or in another county where the land lies, when it lies in more than one county, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as in appeals from the justices of the peace; the proceedings of said commissioners, accompanied with a full description of the said land or right of way, shall be returned under the hands and seals of a majority of the commissioners to the court from which the commission issued, there to remain a matter of record; and the lands or right of way shall vest in said company so long as the same may be used for the purposes of said railroad, as soon as the valuation may be paid, or when refused, may have been tendered, or if the owner cannot be found, as for good cause shown, the court where the commission issued shall direct the same, as soon as said valuation shall be paid into the hands of the clerk of said court: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall hinder or delay the said company in prosecuting their work; And provided further, That on application for the appointment of commissioners under this section, it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that at least ten days' notice has been given to the owner of the land, or if the owner be non compos mentis, or an infant, then to the guardian of such owner, or if such owner or guardian cannot be found within the county, then such appointment shall not be made, unless notice of the application shall have been personally served on such owner or owners as aforesaid, or published at least one month previous in some newspaper printed as conveniently as may be to the court house of the county, and shall have been posted at the court house door.

Said commissioners shall make such valuation on oath, which any justice of the peace or clerk of a court of record is hereby authorized to administer.

Right to condemn lands.

SEC. 8. Be it further enacted, That the right of said company to condemn land shall extend to the condemning, if they deem it advisable, of one hundred feet on each side of the centre of the tract, unless in case of deep cuts and fillings, when said company shall have power to condemn so much in addition thereto as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing their road; and the company shall have power to condemn and appropriate in like manner lands for constructing and building depots, shops, warehouses, buildings for servants, agents and officers employed on the road.

Absence of contracts.

SEC. 9. Be it further enacted, That in the absence of any contract or contracts with said company in relation to land through which the said road may pass, it shall be presumed that the land on which said road may be constructed, together with one hundred feet on each side of the centre of the track, has been granted to the company by the owner, and the said company shall have good title and right thereto, and shall hold and enjoy the same as long as the same may be used for the purposes of the company, unless said owner, at the time of finishing the part of the road on his land, shall apply for the assessment of the value of the land within two years next after the finishing of such portion of the road; and said owner, for the want of such application within said two years, shall be barred from said recovery:

Proviso.

Provided, That nothing herein contained shall authorize said company to invade any dwelling house, yard, garden or burial ground, without the owner's consent; nor shall the right of femes covert, infants, or those non compos mentis, be effected until two years after the removal of their respective disabilities.

SEC. 10. Be it further enacted, That the gauge of said road shall be the North-Carolina gauge.

SEC. 11. Be it further enacted, That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification. [Ratified the 5th day of February, 1863.]

RESOLUTIONS

OF A PUBLIC NATURE, PASSED BY THE

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

AT ITS

CALLLED SESSION OF 1863.

RESOLUTIONS CONCERNING THE CONFEDERATE CURRENCY.

Resolved by the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, That the maintenance of the credit of the currency of the Confederate government is inseparably connected with the great cause in which we are now engaged—the achievement of our independence; and that public confidence in the currency is essential to public confidence in the government, and the success of our arms.

Maintenance of the currency.

Resolved, That if unhappily any depreciation of any of the issues of Confederate treasury notes should result from the unwise legislation of the Confederate government, or of that of any of the States of the Confederacy, or action of any of the banks of the States, we feel proudly conscious that thus far it cannot be attributed to any action of North-Carolina or of her banks, and in behalf of the General Assembly, we pledge ourselves for our constituents and in behalf of the cause, that North-Carolina shall remain true to her pledge of her fortunes with her sister States in this struggle for our liberties.

North-Carolina
not responsible for depreciation.

Repudiation rejected.

Resolved, That North-Carolina unhesitatingly rejects the idea of discrediting or repudiating, directly or indirectly, the currency of the Confederate government, or of the currency of her sister States. [Ratified the 6th day of July, 1863]

A RESOLUTION OF THANKS TO CAPTAIN JOHN ELLIOTT, OF PASQUOTANK COUNTY, AND THOSE UNDER HIS COMMAND.

Returns the thanks of the Legislature.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Legislature are due, and are hereby tendered to Captain John Elliott of Pasquotank county, his officers and men, for the gallant manner in which they captured the two federal steamers, Arrow and Emily, (mail boats,) the former in Albemarle and Chesapeake canal, the latter in North river, and bringing the same through Albemarle sound and up the Chowan and Black Water rivers, and placing them safely under our guns at Franklin, Va., a distance of 120 miles from the place of capture, and that, too, while numerous gunboats were cruising the same route. [Ratified the 4th day of July, 1863.]

A RESOLUTION CONCERNING CRAVEN COUNTY.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of North-Carolina, at its last session, appropriated one million of dollars for the support of the wives and families of soldiers in the service of the State and Confederate States, and whereas, the court house of the county of Craven is in possession of the enemy, and the county trustee of said county is dead, so the said county cannot obtain the benefit of the provisions of said act; and whereas, the justices of said county met in the city of Raleigh on the 27th day of May, A. D., 1863, and appointed George Green commissioner and trustee for said county, according to the provisions of said act; therefore,

Pub. Treas. to pay George Green amount due Craven county.

Resolved, That the treasurer pay said George Green the amount due said county of Craven, under the provisions of said act, entitled "an act for the relief of the wives and families of soldiers in the army," upon his entering in bond, payable to the State of North-Carolina, with good security for the faithful distribution thereof, according to the rules and regulations prescribed by said justices. [Ratified the 7th day of July, 1863.]

RESOLUTION IN FAVOR OF THE PRINCIPAL AND ASSISTANT CLERKS, THE ENGROSSING CLERKS AND DOORKEEPERS.

Resolved, That the principal and assistant clerks of the Senate and House of Commons receive each twelve dollars per day, and the engrossing clerk and his assistants each eight dollars per day, and each of the doorkeepers of each house six dollars per day, during the present session of this Legislature. [Ratified the 7th day of July, 1863.]

Pays principal clerks $12 per day—Engrossing clerks $8—Doorkeepers $6

RESOLUTION REQUIRING ADJUTANT GENERAL TO PREPARE A TABULAR STATEMENT OF THE NUMBER OF VOLUNTEERS FROM EACH COUNTY OF THE STATE.

Resolved, That the Adjutant General be required to prepare a tabular statement of the number of volunteers and conscripts in each of the several counties of this State, the two classes being kept separate and distinct; together with the period when the term of service of each volunteer and conscript may have expired by death or discharge, and that the Governor cause said statement to be published in one or more newspapers of the State, on or before the 1st day of November next. [Ratified the 7th day of July, 1863.]

AN ORDINANCE VESTING IN THE CONFEDERATE STATES OF AMERICA JURISDICTION OVER CERTAIN TRACTS OF LAND IN THE TOWN OF FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. [No. 2.]

We, the people of North-Carolina, in Convention assembled, do declare and ordain, and it is hereby declared and ordained, That the jurisdiction of the State of North-Carolina is hereby ceded to the Confederate States of America, for the purpose of maintaining and erecting therein Arsenals, Magazines, or other necessary buildings, over all that tract, place or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the town of Fayetteville and county of Cumberland, the jurisdiction over which was ceded the United States of America by an act of the General Assembly of the State of North-Carolina, ratified on the 8th day of January, 1839, and is entitled "An Act vesting in the United States of America jurisdiction over a certain tract of land in the town of Fayetteville and county of Cumberland."

Grants jurisdiction over Arsenals, &c.

And be it further ordained and declared, That jurisdiction in like manner and for like purposes is hereby ceded to the Confederate States of America over all tracts or parcels of land adjacent to the same heretofore purchased by the United States of America.

Grants jurisdiction over lands adjacent.

And be it further ordained and declared, That the jurisdiction so ceded to the Confederate States of America, is granted upon the express condition that the State of North-Carolina shall retain jurisdiction on and over the tracts of land aforesaid, so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State of North-Carolina, against any person or persons charged with crimes committed without said tract of land may be executed therein in the same way and manner as if this jurisdiction had not yet been ceded: The Confederate States to retain the said jurisdiction so long as said tract Retains jurisdiction as far as civil and criminal process is concerned.

Conditiona

or tracts of land shall be used for the purposes expressed in this ordinance, and no longer.

Title and possession ceded.

Be it further ordained, That the title and possession of the said lands is hereby ceded to the said Confederate States, on the terms and conditions aforesaid. [Ratified the 5th day of June, 1861.]

[No. 3.]

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF A BOARD OF CLAIMS.

Number of members and duties.

Be it ordained, &c., That a Board of Claims, to consist of three members—two of whom shall be a quorum to do business—be elected by this Convention, whose duty it shall be to audit and settle, upon principles of equity and justice all claims that may be presented against the State for expenses incurred towards the arming, equipping, subsistence and transportation of our volunteer troops, and of munitions of war, and for bounty paid said troops either in the military or naval service of the State, and other expenses incurred in the defence of the State prior to the 20th of May, 1861; and all county claims and other claims of the character aforesaid, arising since the 20th of May, 1861, which are not provided for by law; and no county or corporation claim shall be entertained by said Board, unless the same shall be certified by the County Trustee, or Chairman of the County Court, or by the corporate authorities of any corporation, as the case may be, whence the claim or claims may come.

To take an oath

Employ a clerk

To report to the Convention.

Be it further ordained, That the members of the said Board of Claims shall take and subscribe an oath faithfully and impartially to discharge their duties; they may employ a clerk who shall record the proceedings of the Board; they shall give general and public notice of the times and place of their sittings; they shall be authorized to administer oaths and to require affidavits to be made when necessary. The said Board shall report the result of their labors and proceedings, with a brief statement of the character of each claim allowed, at the conclusion of their labors, or from time to time, as they may think proper, to this Convention, either at the present or any future session. Each member of the Board shall be allowed six dollars per day, and the clerk shall be allowed four dollars per day for each day they shall be actually employed. Compensation.

Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall remain in force, and the Board hereby provided for shall continue in existence till the 15th day of December next, subject to amendment, modification or repeal by this Convention; and, in case of the death, resignation or refusal to serve of any member of said Board of Claims during any recess, or after the final adjournment of this Convention, such vacancy shall be supplied by the appointment of the Governor. Length of time the Board shall exist.
[Ratified the 8th day of June, 1861.]

AN ORDINANCE TOUCHING THE AUTHENTICATION OF ORDINANCES [No. 4.]
 AND OTHER ACTS OF THE CONVENTION.

Be it ordained by this Convention, That ordinances and resolutions of this Convention having the effect of laws, shall be authenticated by the signature of the President and attestation of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary, and shall have the date of their final passage annexed thereto; from which date each ordinance and resolution shall take effect and go into operation, unless some other time shall be therein appointed. To be signed.
[Ratified the 8th day of June, 1861.]

AN ORDINANCE IN RELATION TO A STATE FLAG. [No. 20.]

Be it ordained by this Convention, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Flag of North-Carolina shall consist of a red field with a white star in the centre, and with the inscription. above the star, in a semi-circular form, of "May 20th, 1775," and below the star, in a semi-circular form, "May 20th, 1861." That there shall be two bars of equal width, and the length of the field shall be equal to the bar, the width of the field being equal to both bars: the first bar shall be blue, and Description.

the second be white; and the length of the Flag shall be one-third more than its width [Ratified the 22d day of June, 1861.]

[No. 23.] AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE PAYMENT OF THE MILITIA WHILE IN ACTIVE SERVICE.

Pay the same as that of volunteers.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Militia who have been or may be called into the service of the State by the Governor, shall, while in actual service, receive the pay allowed by law to volunteers. [Ratified the 26th day of June, 1861.]

---

[No. 27.] RESOLUTION EXEMPTING VOLUNTEERS FROM PAYING POLL TAX.

Exempts all who enlisted prior to 15th
August, 1861.

Resolved, That the Volunteers and State troops tendered, accepted and employed in the public service, at any time prior to the 15th August, 1861, shall be exempt from the payment of free poll taxes for which they are now responsible, and shall not be compelled to list a taxable free white poll for this year; and the Sheriffs shall be allowed the amount of such exemptions in the settlement of their respective public accounts, by filing with the clerk of the County Court a list, under oath, of the names of such volunteers and State troops, and it shall be the duty of the clerks of the several County Courts to certify to the Comptroller, under their seal of office, the list of polls so filed with them. [Ratified the 26th day of June, 1861.]

[No. 29.] AN ORDINANCE TO CEDE TO THE CONFEDERATE STATES, THE PROPERTY IN AND JURISDICTION OVER THE FORTS, LIGHT HOUSES, BEACONS, MARINE HOSPITALS AND MINT IN NORTH-CAROLINA.

Cedes jurisdiction over the real estate.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North-Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the property in all tracts or parcels of land, lately held by the United States within the limits of North-Carolina, on which were erected any fortification, light houses, beacons, or marine hospitals, and also the lot in the town of Charlotte, in the county of Mecklenburg, on which is situated the buildings of the Mint, be and the same are hereby granted to, and vested in the Confederate States of America, for the like objects, uses, and purposes, for which they were formerly held by the said United States, to have and to hold the same to the said Confederate States so long as they shall severally be devoted and applied to such objects, uses and purposes, and no longer.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, Grants other property.
That all armaments, furniture and machinery at or in any of such fortifications, light houses, beacons, marine hospitals, or mint, are hereby granted to, and vested in the said Confederate States, for the objects, uses, and upon the conditions aforesaid.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, Jurisdiction granted.
That the jurisdiction of the State of North-Carolina, over each and all of said tracts or parcels of land, and the buildings situate thereon, is hereby granted to the said Confederate States of America, excepting and reserving to this State the power to execute Reservation.
within, and upon the same, civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under her authority against persons charged with offences committed without the limits of said tracts or parcels of land; such jurisdiction to be retained by the said Confederate States, so long as the said tracts or parcels of land shall be used for the purposes hereinbefore expressed, and no longer. [Ratified the 27th day of June, 1861.]

[No. 30.]

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE DISPOSITION OF THE STATE TROOPS AND VOLUNTEERS RAISED UNDER THE ACTS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, RESPECTIVELY, ENTITLED, "AN ACT TO RAISE TEN THOUSAND STATE TROOPS," RATIFIED THE 8TH DAY MAY, AND "AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE PUBLIC DEFENCE," RATIFIED THE 10TH DAY OF MAY, 1861, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Transfers State troops to the Confederate States.

1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina in Convention assembled, That the State troops levied under the act of the General Assembly, first aforesaid, which have been formed into regiments, with proper complements of officers and men, be, and the same are hereby transferred, by regiments, to the Confederate States of America, upon the same terms and conditions as if they had been raised under the authority of the said Confederate States.

Recruiting for State troops to cease August 20th.

2. Be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, That all levying and recruiting of troops under said act shall cease and determine from and after the 20th day of August next; and that all troops which shall have been raised under said act prior to that day, shall be organized into regiments and transferred to the Confederate States in the manner and upon the terms and conditions aforesaid. And if there shall be an excess in the number of said troops, sufficient to form a battalion, companies or company, such excess may be organized according to its appropriate numbers, and transferred in like manner.

Commissions of officers not in service to cease August 20th.

3. Be it further ordained, That all appointments of officers under said act, either in the line or in the staff, over and above the number appropriate to and required by the regiments, battalions and companies thus organized, shall cease and be vacated on the said 20th day of August next; and that His Excellency, the Governor, may, in his discretion, order any Quartermaster, Commissary or Medical stores, owned by the State, and not required for immediate use, to be turned over to the said Confederate States upon proper receipts for the articles thus delivered, to be taken by the officers accountable for the same.

4. Be it further ordained, That all commissions to officers in the aforesaid State troops, issued by the Governor and Military Board, under the authority of the act of the General Assembly to create a Military Board, ratified the 10th day of May, 1861, who shall remain in service after the 20th day of August next, as aforesaid, are hereby ratified and confirmed, notwithstanding any provision in the Constitution of the State for a different mode of appointment

Officers in service to be retained.

5. Be it further ordained, That the naval forces and vessels of the State be transferred to the Confederate States, upon the same terms and conditions that are provided as to State troops, in the second section of this ordinance, the said vessels to be paid for or accounted for upon terms to be agreed upon by the Governor with the Confederate States; and that after the 20th day of August next, all naval officers of this State shall be discharged, and all vessels of the navy not accepted by the Confederate States, shall be sold under the direction of the Governor. And whereas, the President of the Confederate States, through a communication from the Secretary of War, has informed this Convention that he will accept from this State into the service of the Confederate States, two thousand volunteers for twelve months, in addition to the four regiments already in service, and cannot accept any greater number of volunteers for twelve months.

Transfer of Naval forces and vessels.

Preamble.

6. Be it therefore ordained by the authority aforesaid, That all volunteers who have been called out by the order of the Governor for twelve months, over and above the four regiments aforesaid and two thousand men, to be designated by the Governor, and tendered to the President for service as aforesaid, shall be discharged on the 20th of August next: Provided, That any of said volunteers who shall signify their desire to enlist in the State troops aforesaid or in any corps that may be called for by the President in the mean time, shall be discharged forthwith, to the end that they may enter such new service; and Provided further, That the Governor shall again tender such volunteers by regiments to the President of the Confederate States, and if the President shall agree to accept them or any part of them, by, or before the 20th day of August next, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order them, or as many of them as the President shall accept, into the service of the Confederate States, and discharge only the residue: Provided further, That any volunteers discharged as aforesaid, shall, in addition to their pay, be allowed reasonable expenses for traveling to their several homes; and Provided further, That the Governor may order out the Militia as volunteers or otherwise, in case of invasion or imminent danger thereof.

Repeals act of
sembly.

7. Be it further ordained, That all provisions of the aforesaid acts of the Assembly, authorizing the raising of a greater number of men, or of a different species of force than is hereinbefore comprehended, or as are otherwise inconsistent with this ordinance, are hereby repealed and declared of no effect.

Act creating Military Board
repealed.

8. Be it further ordained, That the act of the General Assembly entitled "An act to create a Military Board," be, and the same is hereby repealed from and after the 20th day of August next: Provided, That the office of Military Secretary shall be continued until the 20th day of September next, for the purpose of settling the military accounts.

No oath to be required of soldiers except oath of allegiance to N. C.

9. Be it further ordained, That no oath shall be required to be taken by the officers or soldiers of any of the forces aforesaid, except the oath of allegiance to the State of North-Carolina, prior to their being mustered into the service of the Confederate States; but each man shall be held and deemed to be in the military service and subject to the rules and articles of war of the Confederate States from the time of his signing the articles of enlistment.

10. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the Governor to take immediate measures, and issue the necessary orders to carry into effect the foregoing provisions of this ordinance.

General Assembly may amend, modify or repeal.

11. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance may be amended, modified or repealed by the General Assembly, so far as regards the discharge of the twelve months volunteers which may not have been accepted by the government of the Confederate States. [Ratified the 27th day of June, 1861.]

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE THE WAYS AND MEANS FOR THE [No. 34.]
DEFENCE OF THE STATE.

SECTION 1. Be it ordained, &c., That the sum of three millions two hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, be, and the same is hereby appropriated to meet the demands on the Public Treasury for the next ensuing two years, which sum shall be raised and provided for in the way and manner following:

Appropriates
$3,200,000.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That the Public Treasurer is hereby authorized and required to have suitably prepared, and to issue Treasury notes, payable to bearer, upon the faith and credit of the State, to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars, of the various denominations of ten, twenty-five and fifty cents, in the following proportions, to wit: forty thousand dollars in notes or bills of ten cents, sixty thousand dollars in bills or notes of twenty-five cents, and one hundred thousand dollars in notes or bills of fifty cents, which said notes shall be receivable in payment of public dues; shall bear no interest; shall be made payable to bearer, and be signed by the Public Treasurer, or by some person to be by him duly authorized and appointed to sign the same, and who shall receive a reasonable compensation for such service, to be paid out of the Public Treasury, and shall be redeemable on or before the first day of January, 1866: Provided, however, That no such notes shall be issued before the first day of March next, and that the General Assembly may make provision for the redemption of said notes before the time specified, or may extend the time of redemption, as in their judgment the public may require. The Public Treasurer and Comptroller shall each provide a book in which shall be kept an accurate account of all the notes of the various denominations paid out under the provisions of this ordinance, and also an accurate account of all sums returned to the Treasury; which books shall at all times be open to the inspection of the General Assembly, and for the keeping of such books, they may, if absolutely necessary, be allowed to employ some suitable person to act as clerk.

$200,000 to be issued in notes of 10, 25 and 50 cents.

Public Treasurer to borrow from the Banks $3,000,000, and to issue State Bonds for the same.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That the Public Treasurer of the State be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to negotiate a loan or loans, with the several banks of this State, or with private individuals, in such sums and at such times as he may deem necessary and proper, to an amount not exceeding, in the aggregate, the sum of three millions of dollars, including the amount already borrowed of the banks of this State, under the provisions of an act passed at the last session of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act to provide ways and means for the public defence"—for which the said Public Treasurer shall issue the bonds of the State bearing six per cent. interest, and payable twelve months after the date thereof; and should the Public Treasurer not be prepared to pay the same at maturity, he is hereby authorized to renew the same on such terms and for such times as he may think proper, or to negotiate new loans in lieu thereof, and he, the Public Treasurer, shall keep a true and accurate account of all such loans, and make report thereof to the General Assembly from time to time.

Authorizes the Banks to issue bills of the denomination of $1, $2 and $2½ upon certain conditions.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That those banks in this State who shall loan to the State their pro rata amount of the sum hereby authorized to be borrowed of them, whose charters forbid their issuing bills of a less denomination than five dollars, be, and they are hereby authorized to issue bills of the denominations of one dollar, two dollars, and two dollars and a half, to the extent of five per cent. of their capital stock actually paid in: Provided, That the same shall not be construed to authorize the said banks to issue an aggregate amount of circulation greater than that now authorized by their charter. This authority hereby granted to issue bills of the denominations of one dollar, two dollars, and two dollars and a half shall cease whenever the General Assembly shall provide and direct, upon the payment to the banks, the principal and interest of the sums borrowed of them under the provisions of this ordinance.

Resumption of specie payments not required of banks lending money to the State.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That no bank of this State shall be required to resume specie payments, whilst any portion of the amounts herein authorized to be borrowed from such banks shall remain unpaid.

SEC. 6. Be it further ordained, That if any person falsely make, forge or counterfeit, or cause the same to be done, or willingly aid or assist therein, any Treasury note in imitation of, or purporting to be a Treasury note or bond issued by authority of this act, with the intent to defraud the State, or corporations or other persons; the person so offending shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on conviction thereof in the Superior Court, he shall be adjudged to stand in the pillory one hour and receive thirty-nine lashes on his bare back, and be imprisoned not less than six months, nor more than three years, and fined at the discretion of the court, and all or any of such punishments may, at the discretion of the court, be inflicted.

Punishment of counterfeiters.

SEC. 7. Be it further ordained, That if any person, either directly or indirectly, whether for the sake of gain, or with intent to defraud or injure any other person, shall utter or publish any false, forged, or counterfeit notes as mentioned in the preceding section, or shall pass or deliver, or attempt to pass or deliver, the same to another person, knowing the same to be falsely forged or counterfeited, the person so offending shall, on conviction thereof in the Superior Court, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this ordinance.

SEC. 8. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance, or any portion of it, may hereafter be altered, modified or repealed by the General Assembly, provided nothing contained in this section shall be construed to divest any rights accruing to the banks or other parties without their consent.

Authority granted the General Assembly.

SEC. 9. Be it further ordained, That the act passed at the late session of the General Assembly, entitled "An Act to provide ways and means for the public defence," ratified the 11th day of May, 1861, be, and the same is hereby abrogated and annulled. [Ratified the 28th day of June, 1861.]

Annuls act of General Assembly.

[No. 16.] AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR THE RAISING OF MONEY FOR THE SUPPORT OF GOVERNMENT, AND FOR THE ISSUE OF TREASURY NOTES FOR THE PURPOSE OF PAYING THE PUBLIC DEBT, AND PURCHASING SUPPLIES FOR THE MILITARY FORCES EMPLOYED FOR DEFENCE IN THE PRESENT WAR, AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

Authorizes the issue of $3,000,000 in
Treasury notes

1. Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That the Public Treasurer is authorized to issue Treasury notes for such sums, not exceeding, at any one time, three millions of dollars, as the exigencies of the public service may require, before or on the first day of January, 1863, and the said notes shall be prepared and signed, and issued as hereinafter provided.

To be signed by Treasurer and countersigned by Comptroller.

2. Be it further ordained, That the Public Treasurer cause the said notes to be prepared, and that they shall be signed by the Public Treasurer, on behalf of the State, and countersigned by the Comptroller; and each of those officers shall keep, in proper books, separate and accurate accounts, showing the number, date, and amount of each of the said notes signed and countersigned by them respectively, and, also, accounts showing all such of said notes as may be paid or redeemed and cancelled, from time to time, and the said Treasurer shall account, monthly, for all such of said notes as shall have been countersigned by the Comptroller, and delivered to the Treasurer for issue.

Notes to bear interest of 6 per cent.

3. Be it further ordained, That the said Treasury notes shall be payable at the Public Treasury, to the bearer, on the first day of January, 1865, and bear interest from date at the rate of six per cent. per annum, for every hundred dollars, and in that proportion for sums greater or less than one hundred dollars; and the said notes shall be of the several denominations of five dollars, ten dollars, twenty dollars, fifty dollars, one hundred dollars, and two hundred dollars; and in the following proportions, that is to say: notes for five dollars, ten dollars, and twenty dollars, the amount of four hundred thousand dollars of each denomination shall be issued; and notes for fifty dollars, to the amount of eight hundred thousand dollars; and those for one hundred dollars and for two hundred dollars, to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars of each denomination ; and in the course of the issuing of said notes from time to time, the said relative proportions shall be observed as near as may be.

4. Be it further ordained, That the principal money, and the interest due on the said notes, shall be paid at the maturity thereof to the several lawful holders thereof, upon presentment at the Treasury, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated ; and, further, that at any time or times before the maturity of said notes, the Treasurer may give notice, in the newspapers printed in Raleigh, of his readiness to pay the same on any class or denomination of said notes, or any certain part thereof, and the interest shall close on the notes designated in such notice at the expiration of forty days after such notice given.

Principal and interest to be paid at maturity.

5. Be it further ordained, That the said notes may be issued by the Treasurer, in payment of any warrant in favor of public creditors, or for the purpose of paying military officers and troops in service, or for the purchase of supplies for such troops, and for the payment of coupons upon any bond or bonds hitherto given, or hereafter to be given, or for any other demand upon the Treasury by persons who may be willing to receive the same in payment at par ; and the Public Treasurer may borrow money, from time to time, upon the credit of said notes, as the public service may require, not exceeding the said sum of three millions of dollars : Provided, That upon such loans interest shall not be charged or paid at a greater rate than six per cent. per annum, and further, that no Treasury notes shall be pledged, nor shall they be sold, or issued for any purpose, for less than the amount due on the same, including interest accrued thereon, if any.

The notes to be paid out by the Public Treasurer.

6. Be it further ordained, That the said Treasury notes shall, at any time or times hereafter, be receivable at the Treasury in payment for land entered, and for taxes, and any debt to the State at the Treasury, and in making such payment, the holder shall have credit for the principal money mentioned in said note, and the interest accrued thereon up to the day of payment ; and accounts shall be kept, as aforesaid, of the notes thus paid or redeemed, distinguishing the sum allowed for interest from the principal.

The notes good for any debt to the State.

Sheriffs and collectors to receive them, and to allow interest.

7. Be it further ordained, That the said Treasury notes shall be received by Sheriffs, and other collecting officers, in payment of the public taxes in their respective counties, and the said officers so receiving any of the said notes shall, at the time of payment, take from the person paying them a receipt on the back of each note for the amount allowed therefor and the date thereof, and such officer shall keep a distinct and specific account of said notes so received in payment, showing the person from whom received, the number and date, the day on which he received them, and the amount of the principal, and also the interest allowed by him, and deliver the said notes and accounts to the Public Treasurer; and he shall, thereupon, and on his oath to the truth of said account, receive credit for the amount thereof.

The notes may be exchanged for Coupon State Bonds.

8. Be it further ordained, That the holders of the Treasury notes issued under the authority of this ordinance, may have the same funded, by request, to the Treasurer, to give in exchange for them bonds of the State, payable in thirty years, at the Public Treasury, and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, payable half yearly, with coupons attached, for the interest, payable, also, at the Treasury: Provided, however, That such bonds shall be issued for the amount of five hundred dollars, and one thousand dollars only: And, provided, further, That upon application for such exchange, the interest upon the Treasury notes shall be allowed up to the first day of January, or April, or July, or October next, preceding the request for such exchange, as the case may be, and the interest on the bonds given in exchange, shall run from the day to which the interest on the notes was allowed; and of the notes received by the Treasurer, and of the bonds given in exchange therefor, full and accurate accounts, shall also be kept as aforesaid; and the Public Treasurer is authorized and required to issue such coupon bonds, agreeably to the provisions of the ninetieth chapter of the Revised Code, subject to the restrictions and modifications herein provided.

9. Be it further ordained, That the Treasury notes so received at the Treasury, from Sheriffs, and others, as aforesaid, shall not be re-issued, but shall be deemed to be paid, and be cancelled; and other Treasury notes to the same amount and of the same denomination, and payable at the same time and place, with the same rate of interest may, in like manner, be issued in the place of those so redeemed: Provided, nevertheless, That the aggregate amount of said notes outstanding at any one time, and of the bonds given in exchange for notes as aforesaid, shall not exceed the said sum of three millions of dollars of principal money.

Notes of this issue paid into the Treasury to be cancelled and others issued in their place.

10. Be it further ordained, That the act of the General Assembly, entitled an act to authorize the Public Treasurer to issue Treasury notes, ratified the twentieth day of September, 1861, be, and the same is hereby amended.

Amends Act of General Assembly.

11. Be it further ordained, That if any person shall falsely make, forge, or counterfeit, or cause to be made, forged, or counterfeited, any notes, bond, or coupon, in imitation of or purporting to be a Treasury note, or bond, or coupon, made or issued by authority of this ordinance, or shall aid or assist therein, with intent to defraud the State, or any corporation, or person or persons, he or she so offending shall be deemed guilty of felony, and on due conviction thereof, shall be adjudged to stand in the pillory one hour and receive thirty-nine lashes on the bare back, and be imprisoned not less than six months or more than three years, and be fined; and in the discretion of the court, all or any of the said punishments, may be inflicted.

Punishment for counterfeiting.

12. Be it further ordained, That if any person, for the sake of gain, or with the intent to injure or defraud the State, or any corporation or any other person or persons, shall either directly or indirectly utter or publish any false, forged, or counterfeited note, bond, or coupon, as mentioned in the preceding section, or shall pass or deliver, or attempt to pass or deliver the same to any other person, knowing the same to be falsely forged or counterfeited, he or she so offending shall, on due conviction thereof, be punished in like manner as is provided in the preceding section of this ordinance.

Punishment for circulating counterfeit notes.

13. Be it further ordained, That the Treasurer shall keep and furnish to the Comptroller, an accurate account of the Treasury notes issued, or to be issued by him under act of the General Assembly, and the ordinance heretofore passed and not annulled; and the Comptroller shall also keep an accurate account of all such notes in the same manner as required herein in relation to the Treasury notes authorized to be issued by this ordinance.

Accounts to be kept.

General Assembly may alter or modify.

14. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance may be altered or modified by the General Assembly, but not so as to impair the obligation of the said notes, bonds, or coupons actually issued under the authority of this ordinance, and then held by any person or persons. [Ratified the 1st day of December, 1861.]

[No. 18.]

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE MILITIA MUSTER.

To assemble once a month.

2. Be it further ordained, That besides, and in addition to the duties conferred and enjoined by said ordinance, the said Board shall have power, and it shall be their duty to examine and pass upon all accounts for expenditures made or responsibilities incurred, or allowances claimed by any and every disbursing agent which have not already been finally settled, and allowed at the Treasury, according to existing law, and no such account shall hereafter be settled, allowed, or paid at the Treasury, unless, and until the same shall have first been passed upon and allowed and certified by the said Board, and when, on the examination of any such claim, or of any contract made, the Board shall be satisfied that any disbursing officer or agent of the State, shall have been guilty of any fraud, peculation, or other malfeasance in his said office, or agency, or where any such officer or agent shall fail to account for, and pay into the Treasury, or unto the person or persons entitled to receive the same, all such funds of the State, as in virtue of his office or agency, he ought so to account for and pay over, it shall be the duty of the Board to report the same to the Governor, who shall, forthwith, dismiss the defaulting officer or agent from his said office or agency, and the Board shall also notify the Attorney General thereof, whose duty it shall be to bring suit for the recovery of all balances due, and to institute proceedings, by way of indictment or otherwise, for the punishment of such officer or agent, and the Superior Court of Law, or Court of Equity, for Wake county, shall have jurisdiction of such proceedings according to the nature thereof.

3. Be it further ordained, That for the making of a full investigation of all cases under the second section of this ordinance, for the discovery of any fraud, speculation or other malfeasance, and for the ascertainment of the true state of any account or claim, the Board shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of papers, and to examine not only the witnesses, but any such officer or agent, upon interrogations either verbal or written, as the Board may deem proper, and to compel answer thereto by process of contempt, as is usual in courts of Record of common law jurisdiction.

Powers of Board in regard to investigation of Claims.

4. Be it further ordained, That all disbursing officers and agents intrusted with the care and expenditure of the funds of the State, whose accounts and dealings shall not have been already settled according to existing laws, shall make quarterly reports and exhibits of their dealings and transactions therein to said Board, with the vouchers belonging thereto, at such time in each quarter as the said Board may appoint, by notice, to the said officer or agent, in writing, and the said officer or agent so notified, shall attend before said Board, from day to day, to give such explanations, written or verbal, as the said Board may require, and in all things, to submit to and comply with such directions as the said Board may make, touching the examining, auditing, and passing of such their accounts, and if any such officer or agent shall neglect or refuse to perform anything made his duty in the premises, he shall be reported by the Board to the Governor, who shall forthwith dismiss such officer or agent from his said office or agency, and the accounts or claims of such officer or agent shall not be allowed, paid, or settled, but upon the certificate of the said Board that the same are correct.

Disbursing officers to make quarterly reports to the Board.

5. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the said Board to make a semi-annual report to the Governor of the financial condition of the State, with such recommendations and suggestions as they may think proper, and the Governor shall lay the same before the Legislature.

The Board to report semi-annually to the Governor.

Salary $2,000.

6. Be it further ordained, That instead of the per diem compensation allowed said Board by said ordinance of the 8th of June, 1861, each of the said Commissioners shall be allowed a salary at the rate of two thousand dollars per annum, payable quarterly, at the Treasury, and that the said Board be, and they are hereby authorized to employ a messenger at a cost not to exceed one dollar per day, to be paid upon the certificate of the Board at the Treasury.

Duties of the Board.

7. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of said Board to prepare the accounts of the disbursements of North Carolina on account of the war, in such a way and with such vouchers as shall enable the State to be hereafter reimbursed by the Confederate Government. [Ratified the 11th day of December, 1861.]

Subscriptions.

3. Be it further ordained, That all persons who are, by this ordinance, authorized, or who may be hereafter, by the general commissioners, authorized to open books of subscription, may do so at any time after the passage of this ordinance, upon giving twenty days notice of the time and place when said books shall be opened, and said books shall be kept open for the space of thirty days, at least, and as long thereafter as the general commissioners shall direct; and that all subscriptions of stock shall be in shares of hundred dollars, the subscriber paying, at the time he makes his subscription, five dollars on each share by him subscribed, to the person or persons authorized to receive such subscriptions; and upon closing the books, all such sums as shall have thus been received of subscribers, on the first cash instalment, shall be paid over to the general commissioner, by the persons receiving the same, and in case of failure to pay, as aforesaid, such person or persons, receiving said money, shall be personally liable to said general commissioners, before the organization of said company, and to the company itself, after the organization, to be recovered within the superior courts of law, within this State, in the county where such delinquent resides, or if he resides in another State, then, in any court in such State having competent jurisdiction. The general commissioners, shall have power to call on and require all persons empowered to receive subscriptions of stock, at any time, and from time to time, as a majority of them may think proper, to make return of the stock by them respectively received, and to make payment of all sums of money paid by subscribers; that all persons receiving subscriptions of stock shall pass a receipt to the subscriber or subscribers for the payment of the first instalment, as heretofore required to be paid, and upon their settlement with the general commissioners as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of said general commissioners, in like manner, to pass their receipts for all sums thus received to the persons from whom received, and such receipts shall be taken and held to be good and sufficient vouchers to persons holding them; that subscriptions of stock may be received as aforesaid or as hereafter provided for, to the amount of fifteen hundred thousand dollars.

4. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of said general commissioners to direct and authorize said books of subscription to be kept open until the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, at least, shall be subscribed in the manner aforesaid, and as soon as the said sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or upwards, shall be subscribed in manner aforesaid, and the sum of five dollars on each share paid as aforesaid, the subscribers to said stock shall be, and they are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate in fact and in law, by the name and style of the "Piedmont Railroad Company," with all the corporate powers and authority thereby created and granted, to be held and exercised by said company and their successors and assigns, in perpetuity, and by that name shall be capable in law and in equity, to purchase, hold, lease, rent, sell or convey estates, real and personal, and to acquire the same by gift, devise or otherwise, so far as shall be necessary for the purposes embraced within the scope, object and intent of this charter, and shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, which [they] may use, alter or renew at pleasure, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law in this State or any other State; and shall have, possess and enjoy all rights, privileges and immunities which railroad corporate bodies may and of right do exercise, and may make such by-laws, rules and regulations as are necessary for the government of the corporation, or for effecting the object for which it is created, not inconsistent with the laws of this State or of the Confederate States of America.

The Company
to be declared a corporate body when $100,000 is subscribed.

5. Be it further ordained, That as soon as the sum of one hundred thousand dollars or upwards shall be subscribed as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the general commissioners to appoint a time for the stockholders to meet in the town of Greensboro', in the county of Guilford, which they shall missioners.

cause to be previously published for the space of thirty days in one or more newspapers; at which time and place the said stockholders shall, in person or by proxy, proceed to elect, by ballot, nine directors of the company, and to enact all such regulations and by-laws as may be necessary for the government of said corporation, and the transaction of its business. The persons elected directors at this meeting shall serve such period, not exceeding one year, as the stockholders may direct; and at this meeting the stockholders shall fix on a day and place or places when and where the subsequent election of directors shall be held, and such elections shall thenceforth be annually made; but if the day of annual elections should pass without any election of directors, the corporation shall not thereby be dissolved; but the directors in office shall so remain until others are appointed, and it shall be lawful on any other day to make and hold such elections, in such manner as may be prescribed by a by-law of the corporation.

Qualifications
of Directors.

6. Be it further ordained, That the affairs of said company shall be managed by a general board, to consist of nine directors, to be elected by the stockholders from among themselves, at their first and subsequent general annual meetings; and no stockholder shall be elected a director, nor serve as such, unless he be at the time of his election the owner of five shares of stock, and shall continue to hold the same during the term of his service as director.

President.

7. Be it further ordained, That the President of said company shall be chosen by ballot by a majority of the directors from among themselves, with a salary to be fixed by the stockholders in general meeting.

Qualifications
of voters in general meetings.

8. Be it farther ordained, That all stockholders, not being aliens, shall be entitled to vote either in person or by proxy, the proxy being a stockholder, at all general meetings, and the vote to which each stockholder shall be entitled, shall be according to the number of shares he may hold, as hereinafter provided.

First meeting of stockholders

9. Be it further ordained, That at the first general meeting of the stockholders under this ordinance, a majority of all the shares subscribed shall be represented before proceeding to business; and if a sufficient number do not appear on the day appointed, those who do attend shall have power to adjourn from time to time until a regular meeting be thus formed, and at such meeting the stockholders may provide by a by-law as to the number of stockholders, and the amount of stock to be held by them, which shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at all subsequent meetings.

10. Be it further ordained, That the general commissioners shall make their return of shares of stock subscribed for at the first general meeting of the stockholders, and pay over to the directors elected at that meeting, or their authorized agent, all sums of money received from subscribers; and on failure to do so, they shall be personally liable to said company, to be recovered in like manner as other debts due the company.

Duties of general commissioners after organization of the company.

11. Be it further ordained, That the board of directors may fill all vacancies which may occur in it during the period for which they have been elected, and in the absence of the President, may fill his place by electing a president pro tem. from among their number.

Vacancies.

12. Be it further ordained, That said board of directors shall have power and authority to open books for further subscriptions to the stock of said company at such times and under such persons as they may designate, in the event the whole stock be not subscribed before the first general meeting of the stockholders, and to open and keep open such books from time to time, until the whole amount of capital stock be subscribed.

Further subscriptions.

13. Be it further ordained, That said company shall have power, and proceed to construct as speedily as possible a railroad, with one or more tracks from the North-Carolina Railroad to the Richmond and Danville Railroad in Virginia, to be used and operated by steam power; and to the end that the said corporation may have power and authority to construct said road within the limits of the State of Virginia—this charter shall be transmitted by the President of this Convention to the Governor of Virginia, to the end that the legislative sanction of that State approving the ordinance may be given to said company to construct Powers of the Company.

the railroad as aforesaid within the limits of that State: Provided, That the company formed under this charter shall have no power to discriminate, on either freight or travel, against the North-Carolina Railroad, or roads in North-Carolina connected with it.

Privileges.

14. Be it further ordained, That said company shall have the exclusive right of conveyance or transportation of persons, goods, merchandise and produce over the road constructed by them, at such charges as may be fixed upon by a majority of the directors; and the said company may farm out their rights of transportation over their said railroad, subject to the rules above mentioned; and said company, and every person who may have received from them the right of transportation of goods, wares and produce on said road, shall be deemed and taken to be a common carrier, as respects everything entrusted to them or him for transportation.

Instalments
upon subscriptions.

15. Be it further ordained, That the board of directors may call for the payment of the sums subscribed as stock in said company in such instalments as the interest of the said company may require; the call for each payment shall be published in one or more papers in this State for two months before the day of payment, and on failure of any stockholder to pay each instalment as thus required, the directors may sell at public auction, on a previous notice of ten days, for cash, all the stock subscribed for in said company by such stockholders, and convey the same to the purchaser at said sale, discharged from further liabilities; and if said sale of stock does not produce a sum sufficient to pay off the incidental expenses of sale, and the entire amount owing by such stockholder to the company for such subscription of stock, then, and in that case, the whole of such balance shall be held and taken as due at once to the company, and may be recovered of such stockholder or his executors, administrators or assigns, at suit of said company, either by summary motion in any court of supreme jurisdiction in the county where the delinquent resides, on a previous notice of ten days to said subscribers, or by action of assumpsit in any court of competent jurisdiction, or by warrant before a justice of the peace, when the sum does not exceed one hundred dollars; and in all cases of assignment of stock before the whole amount has been paid to the company, then, for all sums due on such stock, both the original subscribers and the first and all the subsequent assignees shall be held liable to the company, and the same may be recovered as above described.

16. Be it further ordained, That said company shall issue certificates of stock to its members, and said stock may be transferred in such manner and form as may be directed by the by-laws of the company. Certificates of stock.

17. Be it further ordained, That the debt of the stockholders due to the company for stock therein, either original proprietor, or as first or subsequent assignee, shall be considered with equal dignity with judgments in the distribution of the assets of a deceased stockholder by his legal representatives. Debts of stockholders to the Company.

18. Be it further ordained, That the board of directors shall, once a year at least, make a full report on the state of the company and its affairs, to a general meeting of the stockholders, and oftener if required by a by-law, and shall have power to call a general meeting of the stockholders when the board may deem expedient; and the company may provide in their by-laws for occasional meetings being called, and prescribe the mode thereof. Board of Directors to report to Stockholders.

19. Be it further ordained, That the said company may purchase, have and hold, in fee or for a term of years, any lands, tenements or hereditaments which may be necessary for said road or appurtenances thereof, or for the erection of depositories, store houses, houses for the officers, servants or agents of the company, or for the workshops or foundries to be used for said company, or for procuring stone or other materials necessary to the construction of the road, or for effecting transportation thereon. Rights of Company to purchase real estate.

20. Be it further ordained, That the company shall have the right, when necessary, to conduct the said road across or along any public road or water course: Provided, That the said company shall not obstruct any public road without constructing another equally as good and convenient. Rights of the Company in running the road.

21. Be it further ordained, That when any land or right of way may be required by said company for the purpose demn lands.

of constructing their road, and for want of agreement as to the value thereof, or for any other cause, the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners—the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by five freeholders, selected by the county court in the county where the right of way is situated: Provided, nevertheless, That if any person or persons over whose lands the road may pass, or if said company should be dissatisfied with the valuation of said freeholders, then, and in that case, the party so dissatisfied may have an appeal to the superior court in the county where the damage is done, or in either county where the land may lie, under the same rules, regulations and restrictions as in other classes of appeal; the proceedings of the said freeholders, accompanied with a full description of said land or right of way, shall be returned under the hands and seals of a majority of them to the court from which the order was made, there to remain a matter of record; and the lands or right of way so valued, shall vest in the said company so long as the same may be used for purposes of said railroad, as soon as the valuation shall have been made, or when refused, may have been tendered: Provided, That on application for the appointment of freeholders under this section, it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court, that at least ten days' previous notice has been given by the applicant to the owner or owners of the land proposed to be condemned, or if the owner or owners be infants or non compos mentis, then to the guardian or guardians of such owner or owners, if such guardian can be found within the county, or if he cannot be found, then such appointment shall not be made, unless notice of the application shall have been published at least one month next preceding in some newspaper printed as conveniently as may be to the court house of the county, and shall have been posted at the door of the court house on the first day of the term of said court to which the application is made: Provided, further, That the valuation provided for in this section shall be made on oath by the freeholders aforesaid, which oath, any justice of the peace or clerk is authorized to administer; Provided, further, That the right of condemnation herein granted shall not authorize the said company to invade the dwelling house, yard, garden or burial ground of any individual without his consent.

22. Be it further ordained, That the right of said company to condemn lands in the manner as aforesaid, shall extend to the condemning one hundred feet on each side of the track of the road, measuring from the centre of the same, unless in case of deep cuts and fillings, when said company shall have power to condemn as much in addition thereto as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing said road, and the company shall also have power to condemn and appropriate lands in like manner for the constructing and building of depots, shops, warehouses, buildings for servants, agents, and persons employed on the road, not exceeding four acres to any one lot or station.

Amount of land to be condemned.

23. Be it further ordained, That in the absence of any contract or contracts with said company in relation to the lands through which the said road may pass, signed by the owner thereof, or his agent, or any claimant or person in possession thereof, it shall be presumed that the land upon which the said road may be constructed, together with the space of one hundred feet on each side of the centre of said road, has been granted to the said company by the owner thereof, and the said company shall have good right and title thereto, and shall have, hold and enjoy the same as long as the same be used for the purposes of the road, and no longer, unless the person or persons owning the said land at the time that part of the said road which may be on the said land was finished, or those claiming under him, her or them, shall apply for an assignment of the value of said lands, as hereinbefore directed, within two years next after that part of the said road which may be on said lands was finished; and in case the owner, or those claiming under him, her or them, shall not only apply within two years next after the said part was finished, he, she or they shall be forever barred from recovering said land, or having any assessment or compensation therefor: Provided, Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights of *feme covert*s, or infants, until two years after the removal of their respective disabilities.

Powers and privileges in regard to unclaimed lands.

24. Be it further ordained, That all lands not heretofore granted to any person within one hundred feet of the centre of said road, shall vest in the company so soon as the line of the road is definitely laid out through it, and any grant of said land shall thereafter be void.

Punishment for intrusion upon the road.

25. Be it further ordained, That if any person or persons shall intrude upon said railroad, by any manner of use thereof, or of the right and privilege connected therewith, without the permission, or contrary to the will of said company, he, she, or they may be indicted for a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, fined and imprisoned by any court of competent jurisdiction.

Punishment for wanton damage to the road, or any property of the Company.

26. Be it further ordained, That if any person or persons shall wilfully and maliciously destroy, or in any manner hurt or damage, or shall wilfully and maliciously cause, or aid, or assist, or counsel and advise any other person or persons to destroy, or in any manner to hurt, damage, injure or obstruct the said railroad, or any bridge or vehicle used for or in the transportation thereon, any watertank, warehouse, or other property of said company, such person or persons so offending, shall be liable to be indicted therefor, and, on conviction, shall be imprisoned not less than one nor more than six months, and pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, nor less than twenty dollars, at the discretion of the court before which said conviction shall take place, and shall be further liable to pay all expenses for repairing the same; and it shall not be competent for any one so offending against the provisions of this clause to defend himself by pleading or giving in evidence that he was the owner, agent, or servant of the owner of the land where such destruction, hurt, damage, injury or obstruction was done at the time the same was done or caused to be done.

Obstructions.

27. Be it further ordained, That every obstruction to the safe and free passage of vehicles on said road shall be deemed a public nuisance, and be abated as such by any officer, agent or servant of said company; and the person causing such obstruction may be indicted for erecting a public nuisance.

28. Be it further ordained, That the said company shall have the right to take at the storehouses they may establish or annex to their railroad, all goods, wares, merchandise and produce intended for transportation, to prescribe the rules of priority, and charge and receive such just and reasonable compensation for storage as they, by rules, may establish, (which they shall cause to be published) as may be fixed by agreement with the owners, which may be distinct from rates of transportation: Provided, That the said company shall not charge nor receive storage on goods, wares, merchandise or produce which may be delivered to them at their regular depositories for immediate transportation, and which the company may have the power to transport immediately.

Privileges of transportation, &c.

29. Be it further ordained, That the profits of the company, or so much thereof as the General Board may deem advisable, shall, when the affairs of the company will permit, be semi-annually divided among the stockholders in proportion to the stock each may own.

Profits.

30. Be it further ordained, That the following officers and servants and persons in the actual employment of said company be, and they are hereby exempt from the performance of jury and ordinary militia duty: The president and treasurer, the board of directors, chief and assistant engineers, the secretary and accountant of the company, keepers of the depositories, guards stationed on the road and at the bridges, and such persons as may be working the locomotive engines and traveling with the cars for the purpose of attending to the transport of produce, goods and passengers on the road.

Officers and employees exempt from jury and militia duty.

31. Be it further ordained, That if the Legislature of Virginia shall sanction this charter, and authorize the construction of said road within the limits of Virginia to the Richmond and Danville Railroad, and said road shall be so constructed, the said corporation hereby created shall, nevertheless, have power and authority to construct and build one or more branches of said road to the Coalfields of Dan river, and the navigable waters on Smith's river, in the county of Rockingham, and are hereby vested with the rights, powers, privileges and immunities to build and construct said branch or branches with which they are invested to build the main road; and the said road, with its branches, owers of the Company.

32. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the best route for said road and its branches and to locate the same, it shall be lawful for said company, by its engineers, servants and agents, to enter upon, examine and survey any land or lands that they may wish to examine for such purpose, free from any liability whatever.

Confederate States authorized to take the stock in the Company.

33. Be it further ordained, That any one or more of the solvent incorporate railroad companies of the said States, and also the Confederate States of America, may subscribe for stock in said company, and should the Confederate States of America subscribe for and take the whole of such stock, or the larger part thereof, power and authority are given to said Confederate States of America to appoint for the time being the whole of the said directors, anything in this ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, and at once locate and commence the construction of said road, and hold the stock so taken by them until individuals and corporations shall be prepared to receive an assignment of the same, or any part or parts thereof, as hereinafter provided.

Duties of general commissioners, directors, &c.

34. Be it further ordained, That as soon as, under the supervision of the general commissioners, as by this ordinance provided, there shall be subscribed by the Confederate States of America, incorporated companies, or solvent individuals, not less than one hundred thousand dollars of stock, with the five per cent. thereon paid in, the same shall be certified by said general commissioners to said directors, on which being done, it shall be the duty of said directors to have the names of such stockholders recorded on the books of said company, together with the stock subscribed by each, and to cause to have issued to said stockholders certificates of stock in said company, (to each in proportion to the subscriptions made by them,) when they shall have paid up their subscriptions in full, including in their payments the five per cent. which they shall have paid to the said general commissioners, and which the said general commissioners, as hereinbefore provided, shall pay to said company.

35. Be it further ordained, That as soon as subscribers other than the Confederate States of America, as herein provided, shall have their names as stockholders recorded on the books of said company as owners of not less than one hundred thousand dollars of stock, with the five per cent. thereon paid in, from and after that time such stockholders, in all general meetings, shall have power to elect five of the said nine directors, and the President of the Confederate States of America, or such other person as the Confederate States may determine, to appoint four of said directors, and continue to do so until the stock of the said Confederate States, by sale or transfer, shall be reduced to less than half of the entire stock of said company; then, and from and after that time, the vote of the said Confederate States of America in the election of directors, and on all other questions, shall be in proportion to the stock held by them: Provided, That at such elections no stockholder shall give more than two hundred votes.

The appointment of directors.

36. Be it further ordained, That full right and privilege is hereby reserved to the State, or to any company hereafter to be incorporated under the authority of this State, to connect with the road hereby provided for, any other railroad leading therefrom to any part or parts of this State; Provided, That in joining such connection, no injury shall be done to the works of the company hereby incorporated.

State reserves the right to connect any other road with this one.

37. Be it further ordained, That the corporate franchises and privileges hereby granted shall cease and determine at the expiration of ninety-nine years from the day of the passage of this ordinance. [Ratified the 8th day of February, 1862.]

Charter to expire at the end of 99 years.

tion.

3. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of raising the capital stock of said company, it shall be lawful to open books under the direction of the following named commissioners, to wit: At Washington, under the direction of John Myers, Jos. Potts, Benj. F. Havens, B. M. Selby, and George H. Brown; at Pactolus, under the direction of Churchill Perkins, Peyton A. Atkinson, J. G. B. Grimes, Rippon Ward, and Henry Stancil; at Tarboro', under the direction of John S. Dancy, R. H. Pender, R. R. Bridgers, William S. Battle and James R. Thigpen, and at such other places and under the direction of such other persons as a majority of the commissioners first named may deem proper, for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the amount of four hundred thousand dollars, in shares of fifty dollars each.

Duties of commissioners.

4. Be it further ordained, That the commissioners above named, and all other persons who may hereafter be authorized as aforesaid to open books for subscriptions, shall open the same at any time after the ratification of this ordinance, first giving ten days' notice thereof, of the time and place, in one or more of the newspapers published in Washington and Tarboro'; and the said books, when opened, shall be kept open for the space of thirty days, at least, and as long thereafter as the commissioners first above named shall direct, and the said first commissioners shall have power to call on and require all persons empowered to receive subscriptions of stock, at any time, and from time to time, as a majority of them may think proper, to make return of subscriptions of stock by them respectively received.

5. Be it further ordained, That whenever the sum of ten thousand dollars shall be subscribed in the manner and form aforesaid, the subscribers, their executors, administrators or assigns, shall be, and they are hereby declared incorporated into a company by the name and style of the Washington and Tarboro' Railroad Company, and by that name shall be capable, in law and equity, of purchasing, holding, selling, leasing and conveying estates, real, personal and mixed, and acquiring the same by gift or devise, so far as shall be necessary for the purposes embraced within the scope, object and intent of their charter, and no further; and shall have perpetual succession, and by their corporate name may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in any court of law and equity in this State, and may have and use a common seal, which they may alter and renew at pleasure, and shall have and enjoy all other rights and immunities which other railroad corporate bodies may, and of right do exercise, and make all by-laws, rules and regulations that are necessary for the government of the corporation, or effecting the object for which it was created, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of this State.

incorporated
when $10,000
is subscribed.

6. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners named in this ordinance for receiving subscriptions in Washington, or a majority of them, as soon as the sum of ten thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, in manner aforesaid, to give public notice thereof, and at the same time to call a general meeting of the stockholders, giving at least fifteen days' notice of the time and place of meeting; a majority of the stockholders being represented in person, or by proxy, shall proceed to elect a president and treasurer, and six directors, out of the number of stockholders; and the said directors shall have power to perform all the duties necessary in the government of the corporation, and the transaction of its business; and the persons elected as aforesaid, shall serve such period, not exceeding one year, as the stockholders may direct; and, at that meeting, the stockholders shall fix on the day and place or places where the subsequent election of president, treasurer and directors shall be held, and such election shall, thenceforth, be annually made;

but if the day of the annual election of officers should, under any circumstances, pass without an election, the corporation, shall not thereby be dissolved, but the officers formerly elected shall continue in office until a new election takes place.

Mode of their election.

7. Be it further ordained, That the election of officers aforesaid, shall be, by ballot, each stockholder having as many votes as he has shares in the stock of the company, and the person having the greatest number of votes polled, shall be considered duly elected to the office for which he is nominated, and at all elections and upon all votes taken at any meeting of the stockholders, upon any by-law or any of the affairs of the company, each share of the stock shall be entitled to one vote, to be represented either in person or by proxy; and proxies may be verified in such manner as the by-laws of the company may prescribe.

Vacancies.

8. Be it further ordained, That the board of directors, may fill any vacancies that may occur in it during the period for which they have been elected, and in the absence of the president, may appoint a president pro tempore, to fill his place.

Payment of subscriptions.

9. Be it further ordained, That the board of directors may call for the sums subscribed as stock in said company in such instalments as the interest of said company may, in their opinion, require. The call for each payment shall be published in one or more newspapers of the State, for one month before the day of payment, and on failure of any stockholder to pay each instalment as thus required, the directors, may sell, at public auction, on a previous notice of ten days, for cash, all the stock subscribed for in said company by such stockholder, and convey the same to the purchaser at the said sale, and if the said sale of stock does not produce a sum sufficient to pay off the incidental expenses of the sale, and the entire amount owing by such stockholder to the company for such subscription of stock, then, and in that case, the whole of such balance shall be held as due at once to the company, and may be recovered of such stockholder, or his executors, administrators or assigns, at the suit of said company, either by summary motion in any court of superior jurisdiction in the county where the delinquent resides, on previous notice of ten days to said subscriber, or by action of assumpsit in any court of competent jurisdiction, or by warrant before a justice of the peace, when the sum does not exceed one hundred dollars; and in all cases of assignment of stock before the whole amount has been paid to the company, then, for all sums [due] on such stocks, both the original subscriber and all subsequent assignees, shall be liable to the company, and the same may [be] recovered as above described.

10. Be it further ordained, That the debt of the stockholders due to the company for stock therein, either as original proprietor, or first or subsequent assignee, shall be considered as of equal dignity with judgments in the distribution of assets of a deceased stockholder by his legal representatives. Debts of stockholders.

11. Be it further ordained, That said company shall issue certificates of stock to its members, and said stock may be transferred in such manner and form as may be directed by the by-laws of the company. Certificates of stock.

12. Be it further ordained, That the said company may, at any time, increase its capital stock to a sum sufficient to complete said road, not exceeding the additional sum of one hundred thousand dollars, by opening books of subscription of new stock, or borrowing money on the credit of the company, and the mortgage of its charter and works, and the manner in which the same shall be done, in either case, shall be prescribed by the stockholders. Capital stock authorized to be increased $100,000.

13. Be it further ordained, That all contracts or agreements, authenticated by the president and secretary of the board, shall be binding on the company, with or without a seal; such a mode of authentication shall be used as the company, by their by-laws, may adopt. Contracts by the President and Secretary.

14. Be it further ordained, That the said company may purchase, in fee, or for a term of years, any lands, tenements or hereditaments, which may be necessary for said road, or for the erection of depositories, storehouses, houses for the officers, servants or agents of the company, or for workshops or foundries, to be used by the company, or for procuring stone or other material necessary to the construc- Right of company to purchase real estate.

tion of the road or effecting transportation, and for no other purposes whatever.

Rights of company in constructing the road.

15. Be it further ordained, That the company shall have the right, when necessary, to construct the said railroad across any public road or along the side of any public road: Provided, That the said company shall not obstruct any public road without constructing one equally as good and as convenient as the one taken by the company.

Rights to condemn property in cases of disagreement.

16. Be it further ordained, That when any lands or right of way may be required by the company for the purpose of constructing their road, building warehouses, water-stations, workshops or depositories, and for want of agreement as to the value thereof, or from any other cause, the same cannot be purchased from the owner or owners, the same may be taken at a valuation to be made by a jury of good and lawful men, to be summoned by the sheriff of the county in which the land required by the company may lie; and in making the said valuation, the said jury shall take into consideration the loss or damage which may occur to the owner or owners in consequence of the land or right of way being surrendered, and the benefit or advantage he, she or they may receive from the erection of said road, and shall state particularly the value and amount of each; and the excess of loss or damage over and above the advantage and benefit shall form the measure of valuation of the land or right of way: Provided, nevertheless, That if any person or persons over whose lands said roads may pass, or the company should be dissatisfied with the valuation thus made, then, and in that case, either party may have an appeal to the next court of the county, to be held thereafter; and the sheriff shall return to said court the verdict of [the] jury, with all the proceedings thereon, and the lands or right of way so valued by the jury shall vest in the company so long as the same may be used for the purposes of said railroad, so soon as the valuation be paid, or if refused, paid over to the clerk of the county court: Provided further, That the right of condemnation shall not authorize the said company to invade the dwelling house, yard, garden or graveyard of any individual without his consent.

17. Be it further ordained, That the right of said company to condemn land in the manner described in the above section, shall extend to the condemnation only of one hundred feet on each side of the main track of the road, and from the centre of the same, except in case of deep cuts and fillings, when the said company shall have power to condemn as much in addition thereto as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing said road, and the company, in like manner, shall have power to condemn and appropriate land for the building of depots and shops, not exceeding five acres in any one lot or station.

Amount to be condemned.

18. Be it further ordained, That the said company shall have the exclusive right of conveyance or transportation of persons, goods, merchandise and produce over said road, at such charges as may be fixed by a majority of the directors.

Rights of transportation.

19. Be it further ordained, That that profits of the company, or so much thereof as the board of directors may deem advisable, shall, when the affairs of the company will permit, be annually or semi-annually divided among the stockholders in proportion to the stock each may own.

Profits.

20. Be it further ordained, That notice of process upon the president, or any of the directors thereof, shall be deemed and taken to be due and lawful notice of service upon the company.

Notice of process.

21. Be it further ordained, That the company shall have power to construct branches of said road to connect with any other road that may be constructed east of the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, and any contract that may be entered into with any other railroad company by the president and directors of said company, after the consent of a majority of the stockholders first obtained, shall be binding on the company.

Power to construct branch roads.

22. Be it further ordained, That it may be lawful for the Washington and Tarboro' railroad company to make and issue bonds to an amount not exceeding fifty thousand dollars, to be signed by the president of said company, under the common seal of the same, in sums of five hundred dollars each, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent. or less per annum, to be paid semi-annually.

Authority to issue $50,000 in bonds bearing 7 per cent. interest.

Security for the bonds.

23. Be it further ordained, That to secure the faithful payment of said bonds, it may and shall be lawful for the president and directors of the Washington and Tarboro' railroad company to make, execute and deliver to such person as the company may select or appoint, a deed of trust or mortgage, under the common seal of said company, wherein shall be conveyed to the person thus appointed trustee, the road, property, income and franchise of said company, acquired or to be acquired, conditioned for the payment of the interest and final redemption of said bonds.

Employees exempt from militia duty.

24. Be it further ordained, That all officers of the company, and servants, and persons in the actual employment of the company, may be, and they are hereby exempt from performing ordinary military duty, (except in case of insurrection or invasion,) working on public roads and serving as jurors.

Charter to expire unless the work is commenced within four years.

25. Be it further ordained, That all the work hereby required, shall be executed with due diligence, and if it be not commenced within four years after the ratification of this ordinance, then this charter shall be void.

26. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall be in force from and after its ratification, and shall be regarded as a public ordinance. [Ratified the 7th day of February, 1862.]

Confederate States upon the people of North-Carolina, by an act of the Confederate Congress, ratified on the — day of —, 1861.

Treasury notes bearing 7 per cent. interest to be issued.

2. Be it further ordained, That in order to provide the means for the payment of said tax, the treasurer of the State is hereby directed to issue treasury notes, redeemable in five years, to an amount not exceeding a sum sufficient to provide the payment of said tax, which notes shall be made convertible, at the option of the holder, into coupon bonds bearing seven per cent. interest, payable semi-annually, at the treasury, and such bonds being redeemable ten years after date.

Issue of coupon bonds.

3. Be it further ordained, That the public treasurer is hereby directed, when called upon to do so, to issue the coupon bonds described in the preceding section of this ordinance for the purpose therein specified.

Treasurer directed to pay the tax.

4. Be it further ordained, That the treasurer is hereby directed to apply the treasury notes to be issued in obedience to this ordinance, in such manner as may be necessary to the payment of said Confederate tax, which he is hereby directed to make.

Subjects to be taxed for paying the Treasury notes above authorized.

5. Be it further ordained, That in payment of the treasury notes hereby authorized, or of the bonds in which they are funded, the funds in the treasury derived from the ordinary subjects of taxation, shall not be used, but the same shall be raised by a tax on the same subjects of taxation, with the same exemptions that are made in the act of the Confederate Congress imposing said tax, so that the white polls and persons whose estates do not exceed five hundred thousand dollars, shall not be liable to pay any part thereof; and those who have money in possession or in deposit, shall be liable as under said act of Congress.

Additional tax list to be made out.

6. Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of raising the money to pay said treasury notes or bonds in which they may be funded, an additional tax list shall be made out, setting forth only the subjects of taxation enumerated in the said act of the Confederate Congress, and the treasurer shall open and keep a separate account of said fund. [Ratified the 17th day of February, 1862.]

AN ORDINANCE TO RAISE NORTH-CAROLINA'S QUOTA OF CON- [No. 23.]
FEDERATE TROOPS.

1. Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the Governor, from time to time, to issue his proclamation calling for volunteers to meet the requisitions of the Confederate Government, now made, or hereafter to be made: Provided, however, That volunteers heretofore in service, re-enlisting, shall have credit for the time they have served: Provided further, That said volunteers shall not be [retained in service] for a longer time than three years, and to be sooner discharged in case the present war terminates before the expiration of that time: And provided further, that the Governor shall not be required to keep in the Confederate service more than the regular quota of North-Carolina.

The Governor to call for volunteers.

2. Be it further ordained; That the Governor shall call upon the counties to furnish by volunteering, the necessary number of troops, under the present requisition, according to white population (after crediting them with the troops already in the service, for three years or the war, and the volunteers for twelve months) to complete their respective quotas, on or before the 15th of March, 1862.

The counties to supply their quotas.

3. Be it further ordained, That the Governor shall require each Captain now in the service, on or before the 15th day of March, 1862, to return to the Adjutant General a list of the officers and men under his command, with the county of the residence of each at the time of his entry into service.

List of men
now in service
to be obtained.

4. Be it further ordained, That the Governor shall call upon the several captains of volunteer companies from North-Carolina in the field for twelve months, or officers in command of companies, to muster their companies for re-enlistment, and shall make known to them the earnest desire of this Convention and the people of North-Carolina, that they shall enlist for three years or the war, and in order to forward this purpose, the captains of companies, or of-

May be paid for taxes.

2. Be it further ordained, That all taxes due to the State or to counties, and for school purposes, or taxes for the poor, and all payments for entries of public lands, and all other dues to the State, and all fines and forfeitures for the use of the State or counties, shall be paid in treasury notes of the State or of the Confederate States, or in the notes of such of the solvent banks of this State as shall receive and continue to receive and pay out as money at par the treasury notes of this State, or in gold or silver coin; and it shall be the duty of the treasurer to issue instructions to the Sheriffs and tax collectors in the several counties on this subject, and it shall not be lawful for any sheriff or collector to receive taxes in any other funds than as directed by the treasurer under this ordinance.

May be reissued.

3. Be it further ordained, That all the treasury notes funded in bonds, or paid into the treasury for taxes or other public dues, may be re-issued in payment of the debts of the State, or in exchange for six per cent. bonds of the State, on application of the holder at any time before the notes fall due: Provided, That the treasury notes issued to pay the Confederate tax shall not be used to pay the debts of the State; and the treasurer and comptroller shall each keep an account of all notes re-issued and those re-funded in bonds, from time to time, and the date of such transaction, and particularly noting the interest on each bond when taken up, and the amount of interest due on each bond when exchanged for treasury notes, and in all cases shall charge the party receiving such bonds with the interest due at the time of delivery.

4. Be it further ordained, That as the exigencies of the public service may, in the opinion of the Governor, require before the first day of January, 1863, the public treasurer is authorized and required to issue other treasury notes as aforesaid, not exceeding in amount the further sum of fifteen hundred thousand dollars, and that the said notes shall be prepared, signed and issued as in the said ordinance, ratified the first day of December, 1861.

Authorizes the issue of $1,500,000 in Treasury notes.

5. Be it further ordained, That the aggregate amount of said treasury notes outstanding at any one time, and of the bonds given in exchange for or discharge of treasury notes as aforesaid, shall not exceed the amount of such notes authorized by law heretofore, or in this ordinance.

Outstanding amount limited.

6. Be it further ordained, That it shall be the duty of the Treasurer, as soon as convenient, to issue treasury notes of the denominations of five, ten and twenty dollars in equal amounts, instead of, and to exchange for, any of the treasury notes heretofore issued, not bearing interest, of the denominations of fifty and one hundred dollars, on the application of the holders of said notes, and when so taken up or exchanged, the said notes of fifty and one hundred dollars shall be cancelled, and the same shall be noted by the treasurer on his books and on the books of the comptroller.

$5, $10 and $20 to be issued in exchange for $50 and $100 notes.

7. Be it further ordained, That if any one shall falsely forge, or knowingly pass, or offer to pass, any false, forged, or counterfeited paper, purporting to be a treasury note or bond of this State, he shall be liable to indictment in the Superior Courts in the county in which such offence may be committed, and on conviction thereof, shall suffer all the Punishment for counterfeiting or passing counterfeit.

pains and penalties, according to the 59th section of the 34th chapter of the Revised Code.

$1,000,000 to be issued in small denominations.

8. Be it further ordained, That in addition to the treasury notes heretofore issued, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to issue one million of dollars, in small denominations, to wit: four hundred thousand dollars in the denomination of two dollars, four hundred thousand dollars in the denomination of one dollar, one hundred thousand dollars in the denomination of fifty cents, fifty thousand dollars in the denomination of twenty-five cents, twenty-five thousand dollars in the denomination of twenty cents, and twenty-five thousand dollars in the denomination of ten cents, payable on the first day of January, 1866, to be used in liquidation of any claims against the State to persons willing to receive the same, but not to be funded in bonds of the State, but shall be receivable in payment of taxes or other public dues; and he shall keep an accurate account of the issues, from time to time, made under this section of this ordinance.

Banks receiving Treasury notes.

9. Be it further ordained, That no bank receiving the treasury notes of this State, as contemplated in the section of this ordinance, shall be required to receive, or have on hand at any one time, more than two-fifth of the capital stock of such bank in said notes.

Previous acts of the General Assembly and Convention ratified.

10. Be it further ordained, That so much of the act of the General Assembly, entitled "An act to provide ways and means for the defence of the State," ratified September 18th, 1861, as authorizes the issue of one million dollars of the denominations of two dollars, one dollar, fifty cents, twenty-five cents, twenty cents, ten cents and five cents, and also the ordinance of the Convention, ratified December 1, 1861, directing the issue of three millions of dollars of treasury notes, and the ordinance to provide for the assumption and payment of the Confederate tax, as well as all the issues of treasury notes and bonds under said act and ordinances, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

The Treasurer and Comptroller to employ persons to sign the notes.

11. Be it further ordained, That in the event of the inability of the public treasurer or comptroller to sign the treasury notes authorized by law to be issued as speedily as the demands on the treasury may require, then it shall be lawful for either of them to employ some discreet person, by and with the advice and consent of the Governor, to sign and countersign the said notes, whose names shall be published in the newspapers in the city of Raleigh.

12. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance may be repealed or modified by the General Assembly, but so as not to affect any transactions had or rights vested under the same, previous to such modification or repeal. [Ratified the 26th day of February, 1862.]

AN ORDINANCE IN ADDITION TO AN AMENDMENT OF AN ORDINANCE, ENTITLED "AN ORDINANCE IN REGARD TO THE SUPPLY OF SALT." [No. 18.]

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the Delegates of the people of North-Carolina in Convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, That said commissioner may agree with the owners of any land upon which he has or may hereafter erect salt works, for the pur-

Powers conferred upon the Salt commissioner in regard to purchase of land for salt works, &c.

chase or lease of said land, and also for the purchase of the right of way to and from said works, and also of any canals which may be necessary for the purpose of obtaining wood to supply the State salt works; and in case of disagreement with the owner of such land, or if the owners be feme coverts, non compos, under age or out of the State, said commissioner, upon giving five days notice to the owner of said land, if he be a citizen of the State, may apply to any justice of the peace for the county in which the land is situated, who shall thereupon issue his warrant to the sheriff, or any other lawful officer of said county, to summon twelve freeholders to meet on the land to be valued on a day to be expressed in such warrant, which shall be within ten days from issuing thereof, and the sheriff or other officer, upon the receipt of any such warrant, shall summon such freeholders accordingly, and when met, provided as many as seven be present, he shall administer an oath to them that they will impartially estimate the value of such land as may be required by said commissioner for the use of said works, and their proceedings shall be reduced to writing under their hands and seals, and returned by the officer to the next superior court of law for the county in which the land is located; but if either the commissioner or the owner of the land shall be dissatisfied with the assessment of the freeholders, either party may appeal to the same term of the court to which the return is directed to be made, and have his appeal entered at that term; but such appeal shall in no way hinder or delay the operations of the salt commissioner, and whenever such value shall be ascertained, it shall be paid by the commissioner, out of the sum heretofore placed at his disposal, and the title to said lands shall vest in the State during the continuance of the present war.

Authority to bore for Salt and establish salt work.

SEC. 2. Be it further ordained, That said commissioner is authorized to bore for salt and establish salt works wherever in the State he may deem it advisable or expedient; and if, upon examination and experiment, he shall be satisfied that salt or salt water is found in sufficient quantities to make salt, he may contract with the owner of the land, for the renting, leasing or purchasing of said land or salt mines, and in case of disagreement, the toll, rent or value of said land or mines shall be ascertained as prescribed in the first section of this ordinance, and upon payment of such assessed rent or value, the title to said land or mines shall vest in the State during the war.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That said commissioner is authorized to employ the free negroes of the State upon the salt works, and to give them the rations and the pay of soldiers; and in the event he shall not be able to obtain such a number as may be needed for said works, the Governor is hereby required to impress into the service of the State, as many able bodied free negro men as may be necessary for that purpose.

Free negroes to be employed upon the Salt works.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That all persons who are or may be employed in making salt, under contract with the salt commissioner, shall be exempt from military duty and militia service while so employed.

Persons making salt exempt from military duty.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That this ordinance shall take effect from its passage, and shall be subject to alteration, modification or repeal by the General Assembly. [Ratified the 9th day of May, 1862.]

demn lands or rights of way.

pany so long as the same shall be used for the purpose of said road, canal or drain: Provided, That the location of said road, canal or drain, shall not interfere with any graveyard, or with any house, houselot or garden, without the consent of the owners thereof: Provided, further, That no more land shall be condemned for the purposes aforesaid, than twenty feet in width on either side from the centre of said road, canal or drain: And, provided further, That if any person or persons over whose land said roads, canals or drains may pass, or said company shall be dissatisfied with the valuation of said jurors, either party may have an appeal to the superior court of the county in which the land lies; but such appeal shall not delay or interrupt the use or enjoyment of said right of way by said company.

Capital stock,
not to exceed $1,000,000.

SEC. 3. Be it further ordained, That the capital stock of said company may be divided into such number of shares and of such amount for each share as the stockholders thereof may, in general meeting direct: Provided, That the capital stock of said company shall not exceed one million of dollars; that said shares shall be personal property, and certificates thereof may be issued, and the same may be made transferable and assignable, and liable to assessment, forfeiture and sale by the board of directors, in such manner as the by-laws of said corporation may prescribe.

Affairs of the Company to be managed by a Board of Directors, &c.

SEC. 4. Be it further ordained, That the affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of directors, all of whom shall be stockholders of said company, and citizens of the Confederate States. Said board of directors shall be composed of such number, and shall be elected by the stockholders in such manner as the by-laws shall direct, and who shall choose one of their number to be president of the board, and of the company: three of said board shall constitute a quorum to transact business, of whom the president, or one appointed by him to fill his place, shall always be one; they shall have power to fill vacancies which may happen in their body, and until the first election of directors by the stockholders, the said John C. Washington, James E. Hoyt, George Washington and William Murdock shall constitute the board of directors of said company, with full power and authority to exercise all the corporate powers thereof.

SEC. 5. Be it further ordained, That general meetings of the stockholders may be called and held as the by-laws may prescribe; that to constitute a meeting, there must be present, in person or by proxy, (the proxy being a stockholder,) a number holding a majority of the stock, each share of which shall entitle the holder to one vote, and every act shall require the sanction of a majority of the votes present.
